Our newsletter focuses on issues relating to historical dialogue, historical and transitional justice, and public and social memory. More details about items in our newsletter (and more!) can be found on our website.

Both our website and newsletter provide information and resources to encourage innovative interdisciplinary, transnational and comparative research. They are housed at the Institute for the Study of Human Rights at Columbia University, New York City.

Prevention activism—that is, the effort to record, acknowledge, address and redress the violent past—seeks to counter nationalist myths and identities that are central ingredients of ethnic and political violence. Its goal is to deny the propensity for the future escalation of violence by acknowledging the role that the misuse of history has played in dividing societies, and it will be the subject of the 8th Annual Conference of the Historical Dialogues, Justice & Memory Network. To see the full Call for Papers, click here. We hope to see you in New York!

SCHOLARSHIP

Select book reviews, books for review and the latest contribution to our working paper series.

MORE ON SCHOLARSHIP

Read Eveline Buccheim's review of Yukiko Koga's Inheritance of Loss: China, Japan, and the Political Economy of Redemption after Empire (Chicago: The University of Chicago Press, 2016.) Koga looks at how colonial remnants, the inheritance of loss from the title, are turned into capital.
