Oral History Initiative in Kosovo
AHDA alumna Natasha Govedarica will be contributing to the ongoing Oral History Initiative in Kosovo. The goal of the project is to build a public archive of life stories that reflect the rich diversity of life in Kosovo.

Request for information about best practices in the field of historical dialogue. Please send us success stories and examples of historical dialogue that you know about or you've conducted or carried out that involve historical dialogue as a tool in conflict resolution or post-conflict education. Topics can be, but are not limited to, categories such as: historical commissions; addressing national trauma in memory; inclusion of historical acknowledgement in conflict resolution agreements; education and textbooks; museums. Please do NOT send activities that are framed entirely in a judicial context. We look forward to hearing from you at dialogues@columbia.edu.

We are currently updating the database of researchers on our website (see http://historicaldialogues.org/affiliates/database-of-researchers/). The database lists researchers who working on issues of historical historical dialogue, historical and transitional justice, and public and social memory and have published at least one substantial article in an international refereed journal. If you would like to be included in that database, or if you would like to update your details, please send an email to historicaljustice@swin.edu.au.

We are happy to share our fourth working paper, written by Caterina Bonara, “Opening Up or Closing the Historical Dialogue: The Role of Civil Society in Promoting a Debate About the Past.” As usual, we encourage you to peruse the paper and add your thoughts and observations—however informal and brief—to the comments of this post.
