Request for information about best practices in the field of historical dialogue. Please send us success stories and examples of historical dialogue that you know about or you've conducted or carried out that involve historical dialogue as a tool in conflict resolution or post-conflict education. Topics can be, but are not limited to, categories such as: historical commissions; addressing national trauma in memory; inclusion of historical acknowledgement in conflict resolution agreements; education and textbooks; museums. Please do NOT send activities that are framed entirely in a judicial context. We look forward to hearing from you at dialogues@columbia.edu.

We are currently updating the database of researchers on our website. The database lists researchers who working on issues of historical dialogue, historical and transitional justice, and public and social memory and have published at least one substantial article in an international refereed journal. If you would like to be included in that database, or if you would like to update your details, please send an email to historicaljustice@swin.edu.au.

The Dialogues on Historical Justice and Memory Network is now taking submissions to feature in the Working Paper \(WP\) Series for 2014-2015. We are looking for unpublished texts that emerging scholars, practitioners and others are willing to "workshop" within our intellectual community. Our featured paper is Derek Charles Catsam's "The Ambivalence of Forgiveness: Dirk Coetzee, Eugene de Kock, and South Africa's Truth and Reconciliation Commission." We encourage you to send questions and Working Paper submissions to co-editors Michelle Bellino and Cathlin Goulding at dialogues@columbia.edu.

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS - DEADLINE EXTENDED
Alliance for Historical Dialogue Fellowship Program
Fall 2015 (September 2, 2015 –December 18, 2015)

Application deadline: March 15, 2015

The Institute for the Study of Human Rights (ISHR) at Columbia University is now accepting applications to its residence Fellowship for Historical Dialogue and Accountability. Practitioners of historical dialogue and accountability from conflict, post-conflict and post-dictatorial societies will have the opportunity to engage in training, networking, project work, academic and applied study. The comprehensive program provides Fellows with the opportunity to hone practical skills in fundraising, advocacy and leadership, to develop a deeper understanding of dealing with the past, and to foster mutually beneficial relationships with their peers and with international and non-profit organizations in New York City and Washington, DC.

The Program is designed for NGO practitioners, journalists, lawyers, teachers, social workers, community organizers, and others working on issues including (but not limited to) transitional justice, truth and reconciliation, historical conflict, indigenous and minority rights, social accountability, memory studies, oral history, sites of memory and related areas where historical dialogue is a central component. Preference will be given to those who can demonstrate an established work record of several years relating to historical dialogue and accountability.

Both fully funded and partially funded fellowships are available.

You can register and begin the application by clicking here.

Book Reviews

Books for Review

- Janine Natalya Clark, International Trials and Reconciliation: Assessing the Impact of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia. Routledge, 2014.
- Devon Emerson Hinton and Alexander Laban Hinton (Eds.), Genocide and Mass Violence: Memory, Symptom, and Recovery. Cambridge University Press, November 2014.
- Karine Vanthuyne, La présence d'un passé de violences. Mémoires et identités autochtones dans le Guatemala de l'après-génocide. Presses de l'Université Laval, 2014.

Book Reviews

- Lara Fullenwieder's review of Carmela Murdocca (2013), To Right Historical Wrongs: Race, Gender, and Sentencing in Canada. Murdocca undertakes the uncomfortable task of illustrating how seemingly progressive liberal policies of inclusion function to reinscribe and reproduce colonial power through systems of exclusion.
