

Seeking two new editors!

Working Paper Series, Historical Dialogues, Justice and Memory Network

The working paper series was launched four years ago, and has become a dynamic part of the Historical Dialogues, Justice and Memory Network. We are currently seeking two editors to take over the duties of managing this component of our website. Duties include advertising and receiving potential submissions and responding to queries about submissions; evaluating submissions for publication; communicating with authors; acting as a liaison to the Network, the papers' authors, and the Network's audience. Basic technical knowledge of wordpress is required.

This is a volunteer position, most likely of interest to emerging scholars and/or early career practitioners whose work relates to the interdisciplinary field of historical dialogue. The format of the working paper series is flexible, and we are open to new ideas regarding contributors and authors. Editors should be able to work independently. If interested, please send a cover letter and resume/cv to Ariella Lang, al223@columbia.edu, with subject heading "editorial position". Applications will be considered beginning April 1.
