Reception to Follow

Panelists:

Eduardo Gonzalez Cueva, Transitional Justice Consultant
Trudy Peterson, Certified Archivist
Kate Doyle, Senior Analyst of U.S. policy in Latin America, National Security Archive
Benjamin Cuellar, Salvadoran Human Rights Activist
Leonor Arteaga, Senior Program Officer, Due Process of Law Foundation, U.S/ El Salvador

Moderated by: Jocelyn Getgen Kestenbaum, Faculty Director, Cardozo Law Institute of Holocaust and Human Rights

Falling on the heels of the UN Day on the Right to Truth and the 25th Anniversary of the El Salvador Truth Commission, CLIHHR is hosting a panel event to draw attention to the role that truth commission archives play as a potential source of information for justice and the search for those forcibly disappeared in times of conflict or oppression. The panel will discuss historical decisions about access to truth commission archives in light of evolving standards on the right to truth, accountability, and justice. In addition, panelists will talk about the specific potential of El Salvador's Truth Commission archives and how they can contribute to the search for the disappeared.
