Our newsletter focuses on issues relating to historical dialogue, historical and transitional justice, and public and social memory. More details about items in our newsletter (and more!) can be found on our website.

Both our website and newsletter provide information and resources to encourage innovative interdisciplinary, transnational and comparative research. They are housed at the Institute for the Study of Human Rights at Columbia University, New York City.

Many citizens and governments are beginning to tear down, move, or recontextualize key monuments in their own societies. Are there new guiding principles and norms that will shape how western democracies engage or avoid their difficult histories? Check out our new blog, with Professor Mark Wolfgram's essay on the Past and Future of the Iconoclast.
