

February 5, 2020

Our newsletter focuses on issues relating to historical dialogue, historical and transitional justice, and public and social memory. More details about items in our newsletter (and more!) can be found on our website.

Both our website and newsletter provide information and resources to encourage innovative interdisciplinary, transnational and comparative research. They are housed at the Institute for the Study of Human Rights at Columbia University, New York City.

The deadline for applications to the Alliance for Historical Dialogue and Accountability Fellowship has been extended to February 15, 2020! Click here to learn more about the program and how to apply.

SCHOLARSHIP

Select book reviews, books for review and the latest contribution to our working paper series.

MORE ON SCHOLARSHIP

We are delighted to share the latest contribution to our working paper series, Angela Bermudez's essay, "The Normalization of Political Violence in History Textbooks: Ten Narrative Keys". Angela Bermudez is a researcher at the Center for Applied Ethics in the University of Deusto (Bilbao, Spain).

Read Alexandra Lebedeva's review of The Social Life of Memory. Violence, Trauma, and Testimony in Lebanon and Morocco (Norman Saadi Nikro and Sonja Hegasy, eds.). This volume bridges the theoretical concepts and practice, where individual experiences from real people give a face and voice to the abstract notions of memory and history, time and place.
